Missionary Immanuel #15MVN0523TN and his wife

Raised in a Hindu home with 5 siblings, Immanuel was bound by an evil spirit and had many serious illnesses as a child. His parents were helpless. One day a missionary came to their home and preached the word of God. He shared the love of Jesus and prayed for all of them. His parents accepted Jesus as their savior; and little by little Immanuel was completely healed.

Later, Immanuel submitted his life to ministry and because of this decision, he has been ridiculed, humiliated, and persecuted. However, he's faithfully persisted in sharing the gospel of Jesus and has come to see many of those who once despised him are now believers and attend his church regularly. There are 45 believers in his church and he hopes to evangelize the forty nearby villages, building churches in each one.

A HEART OF ANGUISH

Recently, I listened to an excerpt from David Wilkerson's "A CALL TO ANGUISH" and read the book "THE INSANITY OF GOD" by Nik Ripken. Both brought to mind the weeping and mourning of God's precious saints in India as they cry out to God for the lost souls of the peoples in their villages. When Nehemiah heard about the ruin of Jerusalem, "he sat down and wept. He mourned and fasted and prayed before the God of heaven." (Neh 1:4)

On Brother Vee's 2nd visit to the U.S., he attended a large conference of spiritual leaders. When pressed for his impression of the meeting, his response was, "there were a lot of ha-ha's and ho-ho's, but I didn't see any tears." He is accustomed to experiencing "anguish for lost souls" among the spiritual leaders whom he ministers with in India. Multitudes of lost souls are coming to the saving knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. "Anguish of the heart for the lost!" - mourning, weeping, fasting, praying, suffering for the cause of the gospel!

Less than 5% of all Jesus followers on this earth live in the U.S. My heart is grieved when I consider what God must think of us compared to the majority of His children elsewhere in the world. We need more than concern - we need anguish - this comes from God. "We must begin to believe that God, in the mystery of prayer, has entrusted us with a force that can move the heavenly world, and can bring its power down to earth." Andrew Murray.

Please pray for God to continue to bless His ministry in India and that in His grace, He would grant us "a heart of anguish for the lost" in the U.S.

Tony
